Dacorum Communities for Learning

Safeguarding Adults

This course is aimed at those who work in the community, and who need to understand the legislation around the safeguarding of adults. There will be some information about safeguarding children too, but the focus is on adults.

At the end of the course, learners will be able to:

- Give a definition of Safeguarding
- State the relevant legislation concerning Safeguarding
- Define 'regulated activity', under Safeguarding legislation
- Explain what we are safeguarding learners from
- List different types of abuse, and how you might recognise them
- State the 5 'R's in relation to Safeguarding
- Say who their Designated Safeguarding Officer is
- Explain what they would do if they came across an issue

You do not need to bring anything with you to this course.

You should let us know of any additional support you may require, when booking this course.
